General Information

If an individual is in immediate danger, or someone is using violence or threatening to be violent, always advise calling the police on 999.

- Durham Constabulary (report phonenumber/online form/textphone/info). Available to report concerns about human trafficking: if someone may be a victim of human trafficking or modern slavery, report it as soon as it is safe to do so, whether it is you, another victim, a suspect, or a particular business or place you wish to report. Protection and support is available, and you will be taken seriously. Information on modern slavery and human trafficking, including signs of it, is available on their website.
