Reporting and recording crimes

- Durham Police. The page contains emails, forms and other methods of reporting crimes or incidents. If you want to report a non-emergency situation, such as theft or damage, you should either call 101 to speak to the local police, or go to your nearest police station to report the situation (in Durham City, the local police station is on New Elvet). In an emergency, always call 999.
<https://www.durham.police.uk/>
- Police UK. An online service for reporting crimes to the police, available nationwide. This service is not for emergencies; in an emergency, always call 999.
<https://www.police.uk/pu/contact-us/>
- Crimestoppers. A charity service to anonymously report crimes to the police. This service is not for emergencies; in emergencies, always call 999.
<https://crimestoppers-uk.org>

 - Report online: <https://crimestoppers-uk.org/give-information/forms/pre-form>
 - Phone: 0800 555 111

- Report Harmful Content. An online service which provides advice on how to have harmful, illicit and criminal content online removed. This service is not for emergencies; in emergencies, always call 999.
<https://reportharmfulcontent.com/>
- University Security. A trained staff member will ask you to describe what has happened and where you are, so that you can receive help quickly. Please keep calm, and be prepared to give a brief, clear and precise explanation of the problem. Your call should be answered within ten seconds.
